Cal Poly International Education and Programs Office to Sponsor Study Abroad Fair Oct. 6

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- Cal Poly's International Education and Programs Office will sponsor a Study Abroad Fair from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6, to give students and others an opportunity to learn about the many aspects of international education.

The event, which is open to the public, will be held on the lawn in front of the Dexter Building on campus. Study abroad program representatives and students who have studied abroad will be on hand to answer questions and talk about their experiences and how it changed their lives.

Studying abroad is more affordable than you think and can fit into most academic programs, according to Miriam Rabban of Cal Poly's International Education and Program office.

More than 40 representatives from international study, internship and travel programs are expected to attend the Study Abroad Fair. Cal Poly international programs include quarter abroad programs, California State University International Programs, summer Mexico and Spain programs, and academic department exchanges.

For more information, contact Rabban at 756-6161, 756-5484 or marabban@calpoly.edu.
